

Drinking Water Inspectorate Presentations in 2006

Several inspectors are experts in the field of drinking water treatment, distribution, quality, security and regulation. The Inspectorate participates in conferences and presents to students and bodies on drinking water issues.

The following table illustrates events where Inspectors made presentations in 2006. In addition to the presentations lists, Inspectors routinely attend water company liaison and CCWater (Consumer Council for Water) meetings.

Presentations by the Inspectorate 2006
Audience and Venue	Subject or Purpose
Cranfield University, MSc/MTech Water Sciences students	Lecture on Regulatory Framework and Role of the DWI
Health Authority / Local Authority / Water Company (Northumbrian) Seminar	Drinking Water Quality 2005 and learning from Incidents and Technical Audits.
Reading University Association of Public Analysts	Drinking Water Standards and Analysis
Houston, Texas, USA International Risk Conference,	Water Safety Plans
WHO, Geneva, International experts	Progress with Water Safety Plans in the UK
CIEH, London, Water industry and environmental health audience	Amendments to the Water Supply (Water Quality) Regulations
Welsh Assembly Government, Cardiff Water industry and environmental health audience,	Amendments to the Water Supply (Water Quality) Regulations
IWA Beijing, International water industry and environmental science audience	Risk-based approach to technical audit
WHO Beijing, International water industry and environmental health audience	Implementation of water safety plans in the UK
Emergency Planning College, York Water Security Course	The role of the Drinking Water Inspectorate in Emergencies
HPA, Colindale, HPA analytical staff	Drinking Water Standards and the role of the Drinking Water Inspectorate
Camden Town Hall London Local Authorities Pollution Group	The role of the Drinking Water Inspectorate & Chief Inspector's report 2005
Pipes 2006
MSc students : (MSc in Water Resources Tech and Management) School of Engineering, Birmingham University	Drinking Water Standards and the role of the Drinking Water Inspectorate
Seminar organised by British Plastics Federation	REACH & the EAS
Homerton College, Cambridge 2 day workshop	Deconstructing EU Legislation for food contact materials
Seminar organised by British Water	Product approval & regulation